

JUDITH LIEGEOIS

JUDITH LIEGEOIS DESIGNS

The NCEF (Naples Children & Education Foundation) has a mission to improve the physical, emotional, and educational lives of the disadvantaged children in our community. Judith is a Lifetime Trustee for NCEF. “It is a privilege to collaborate and share our time, treasures, and talents with the like-minded individuals who have become trustees,” says Judith. “It is a wonderful organization that I am proud to be actively involved with.”

Judith says many of her friendships with strong women date back to her schooldays, contributing to the person she has become. One woman, however, stands out. “I met her when I came to the U.S. I had no family or friends here at the time and she organically became somewhat of a guide and mentor to me. She was candid and straightforward but also very kind. From her I learned the delicate balance of patience and perseverance, to be thoughtful and live life with intention. She has passed but I think of her often and am so grateful to have had her friendship.”

“It is a privilege to collaborate and share our time, treasures, and talents with the like-minded individuals who have become trustees.”