A Connoisseur's Guide to the South Florida Art Scene

Take Flight

For this Naples abode, Judith Liegeois of Judith Liegeois Designs sought to create a zen escape that included a calm, neutral setting for the homeowners' growing art collection. In a second-floor alcove, Liegeois invited the outdoors in. She started by sourcing a wall installation of birds in flight, which artist Ran Adler fashioned out of acacia thorns. She completed the scene with a tree sculpture by Ed Koehler and an abstract painting in complementary hues by Leland Brinkman. All three artists—Adler, Koehler, and Brinkman—live and work along the Gulf Coast and cull inspiration from the natural world. (judithliegeoisdesigns.com)
